Our Mission

DealerConnect '26 is where innovation, collaboration, and opportunity converge to shape the future of the industry we love. Our mission is to bring dealership leaders, technology innovators, and industry experts together for a dynamic event filled with insightful discussions, networking, motivational speeches, and entertainment.

Unrivaled Learning, Networking & Entertainment.

DealerConnect is where the automotive industry's top professionals come together for a unique experience not seen in our industry until now. This year's event will go beyond the traditional with world-class golf, inspiring keynote speakers, round table discussions, and exclusive networking opportunities.

01

Exclusive Industry Networking

Connect with top dealership executives, vendors, and automotive professionals to build valuable relationships, exchange insights, and explore new business opportunities.

02

Latest Technology Insights

Experience the latest advancements in AI technology, marketing, and compliance from the top AI product providers in automotive.

03

Renown Keynote Speakers

Gain expert-led insights, panel discussions, and hands-on demos designed to help dealerships improve efficiency, enhance customer engagement, and stay ahead in a competitive market.

Location, Location, Location

Omni Amelia Island Resort & Spa is an ideal destination for executive meetings and leadership retreats. Just 29 miles from Jacksonville International Airport (JAX), this AAA Four Diamond oceanfront resort offers a distinctive blend of upscale accommodations, meeting space, and memorable networking experiences in a stunning coastal setting.

Industry-Leading Partnerships

DealerConnect is powered by exclusive partnerships with top innovators in the automotive industry. These industry leaders are driving the future of AI-driven dealership solutions, making this event a premier opportunity to gain insights, explore cutting-edge technology, and connect with key decision-makers.

Keynote Speaker

Michael Saxon, Ph.D.

Financial Crimes, AI & Emerging Technology Leader

Dr. Michael Saxon is a recognized expert in artificial intelligence, financial crimes compliance, cryptocurrency, and emerging technologies. He currently advises global organizations on AI-driven risk management, anti-money laundering (AML), sanctions compliance, and regulatory strategy.

A former Chief Operating Officer in the fintech and digital asset sector, Michael has led compliance, risk, and operational functions for rapidly growing organizations, integrating AI and machine learning to improve fraud detection and regulatory readiness.

Michael is also a U.S. Army combat veteran, former West Point faculty member, and holds a Ph.D. in Philosophy with a focus on ethics. His unique combination of leadership, technology, and ethics expertise makes him a sought-after speaker on responsible AI, digital innovation, and the future of governance in an increasingly automated world.

Keynote Speaker

Cassie Kozyrkov

AI Luminary/Chief Decision Scientist at Google

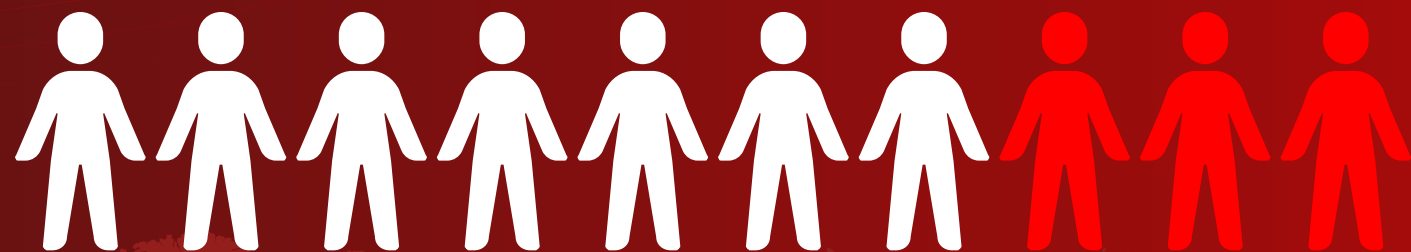

Cassie Kozyrkov, CEO of Kozyr, is a renowned leader in artificial intelligence. She is best known for founding the field of Decision Intelligence and serving as Google's first Chief Decision Scientist, where she led the charge in Google's transformation into an AI-first company.

Today, Cassie is a sought-after AI advisor and speaker who has transformed how organizations like Gucci, NASA, Spotify, Meta, Salesforce, and GSK approach AI strategy. Passionate about elevating human potential through the responsible adoption of complex technology, she also serves on multiple advisory boards and is an investor in emerging product companies. Her influence on Google's culture is legendary; no matter how big the auditorium, Google had to use lotteries to manage the demand to participate in one of her live workshops.
